

Information Sessions

The Engineering, Construction, Manufacturing, and Design (ECMD) Division offers programs addressing critical gaps in high-demand, high-wage local jobs. By aligning with workforce needs, we empower students for well-paying careers driving community economic vitality through collaborative industry partnerships. The ECMD Division is a premier destination for students seeking expertise and credentials for today's competitive job market. Information sessions are open to individuals interested in learning about the ECMD programs.

Information sessions are held the first Thursday of each month
at 11:00 a.m. at the
Lawrenceville campus,
Building A, Room 1109

2026
January 8*
(second Thursday)

February 5

March 5

April 2

May 7

June 4

PLEASE REGISTER To ATTEND!

Air Conditioning Technology

Automated Manufacturing

Commercial Construction Management

Drafting

Engineering Technology

Environmental Horticulture

Residential Construction
Management/
Carpentry

Welding and Joining Technology

For more information on ECMD programs, scan the QR code or contact Patrick Mahaffey, Division Dean, at PMahaffey@GwinnettTech.edu or 678-226-6760.

Contact Patrick Mahaffey, Associate Vice President, Emerging Technologies and Technical Studies at PMahaffey@GwinnettTech.edu with your name, phone number, email address and the session date you'd like to attend or scan the QR code to sign up.